

The brain tumour patient pathway – optimising health and well-being

For healthcare professionals, patients, their caregivers and anyone interested in brain tumours

Cliveden House, Monday 22 July 2019

Objectives

- To meet other cancer care professionals and people living with a brain tumour
- To share first hand experiences and ideas
- Present a friendly and holistic approach to treatment
- Help patients and their carers to understand what’s involved
- Help patients improve their condition and wellbeing
- To provide a view from the clinical bridge
